DEDICATION

Two hundred and fifty years ago Mobile was founded. Spring Hill College has been a vital part of Mobile for half that span of years. It is fitting that this year's Torch be dedicated to the City of Mobile in recognition of our college's prolonged union with the city and in honor of her recent two hundred fiftieth anniversary.

Mobile is a growing and prosperous community. Her industries and sea-port facilities have more than doubled in a short space of years. For this we commend her. But let her never forget what our influence as a seat of higher learning has meant.

Big things, for the sake of their bigness; fast things, for the sake of their fastness; productions, consumptions — these are not the vital things of this life.

Our college does not educate its Mobile students to make a living and not know how to live. We aim at targets many do not even see. Our students leave with the keys for unscrambling the complexities of a social order which to many is only an unstable web of cross purposes.

To you, Mobile; to you, you other cities, we give our only product — citizens. Citizens based on reality, on God.

Our material endeavors sometimes seem small; sometimes we do not even seem noticeable in the public order, but our spirit is bright. It is as bright as our synonym — The Torch on the Hill.

Our greatest Teacher, to whom we all look, told us this, "Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in Heaven."

We give our light to you, Mobile.

SPIRIT

The first division of this book deals with our religious activities. The distinguishing mark of a Catholic college is its spiritual environment. It is something foremost. So as first in importance, so first in our book; our lives for Christ.

CENTERS OF FAITH

Our whole student life has been spiritually permeated by constant contact with the symbols of our Faith in Almighty God and His Son. The Communion of Saints stands symbolized before us in the beautiful statue of the Blessed Virgin, in the statues of our saints, and in our prayer for the dead. We are not only rooted in the past but we the living on earth join hands with the living in heaven and Purgatory.

SODALITY of

The Sodality began its work at Spring Hill in 1847 and has never ceased to represent the loyalty of the students to the Mother of God and to its motto "Ad Jesum per Mariam."

The boarders' Sodality holds regular meetings and sponsors such activities as the rosary in the resident halls each night; nocturnal adoration every first Thursday of the month; teaching of catechism to the children of the various surrounding missions and has many other works of zeal too numerous to mention.

ROSARY AT THE GROTTO

The day-students' Sodality is a branch of the boarders' Sodality under the moderation of Fr. Thomas Mulcrone, S.J. It holds regular meetings once a week and provides excellent opportunity for the day students to participate in religious and social activities of the school. One of the various zealous works carried on by them is the daily recitation of the rosary at the grotto.

SANCTUARY SOCIETY

The St. John Berchmans Sanctuary Society is an association of those Catholic men students who serve at the altar during the various liturgical functions throughout the year. Their principal duty is to help serve at the 30 or more Masses said daily at the many altars on the campus. Because Christ is the center of Catholic life on the campus the Mass, which is the repetition of the sacrifice of Christ on Calvary, is the most important liturgical function and channel of divine grace for student life and scholastic success.

KNIGHTS of COLUMBUS

The purpose of the Knights of Columbus is to develop a practical Catholicity in its members and to promote Catholic educatian and charity. The Michael Kenny Council 3038 was braught to life officially on the campus April 1, 1947 and has grown ever since under the direction of Father A. A. Colkin, S.J. The Council now has many undertakings to further Catholic action; among these is the selling of milk for the orphan's fund.

NEW JESUIT HOUSE OF STUDIES

The new Jesuit House of Studies, to which so many Spring Hill alumni and friends contributed, was dedicated February 1, 1953 by His Eminence, Samuel Cardinal Stritch, Archbishop of Chicago.

The new building is a complete unit where the Jesuit Seminarians, called "Philosophers" because they are engaged in a three year intensive course in Philosophy, can eat and sleep, study, recreate and pray.

COACH BILL

Caach Bill Gardiner campleted his seventh year af coaching at Spring Hill this year. He has annaunced this year that Spring Hill has resigned fram the Gulf States Canference and jained the Sauthern Intercallegiate Athletic Assaciatian, the aldest conference in the cauntry. He represented the Hill at the Natianal Caaches Canventian in Kansas City.

His basketball team this year finished the seasan better than was expected with a relatively yaung crap af players, emplaying a switching man to man defense and a pivat affense.

Springtime finds Caach Bill an the baseball diamond, directing the team.

Next year coach Gardiner aims to bring better basketball teams far the Mabile fans.

FATHER DAN

To the Students at Spring Hill, Fr. Dan Cronin has become almost a symbol of Badger Athletics. He attends all basketball and baseball practices and travels with the teams on almost all of the road trips. Fr. Don is so faithful to the basketball team that he wanted to leave the hospital immediately after an operation rather than miss one of the games. If you want information on any former Spring Hill ball player for the last quarter of a century ask Father Dan!

VARSITY BADGERS'

Althaugh the Badgers' apened the 1952-53 seasan by lasing several hame games, they steadily pragressed and climaxed the year with an 89-86 win aver Layala. Their achievements this year (3rd place in the G.S.C. Taurnament, invitatian ta play in the Sectianal playaff af the N.A.I.B. Taurnament, their slim 3 paint lass ta twa-year N.A.I.B. Champians, Sauthwest Missauri, and finally the well-earned victary aver Layala) are heightened by the realizatian that the Badgers' were relatively yaung, cansisting af 5 Freshmen, 4 Saphamares, 2 Juniars and 2 Seniars, and that they did nat have the ten paint hame-flaar advantage because they played in the new McGill Gym. Anather shacking disadvantage was Mabile's and the Spring Hill students' lack af enthusiasm and suppart far a team that faught and demanstrated teamwark. JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

COACH NAPOLITANO WITH SHAPIRO PRACTICE.

Scheduling some of the roughest competition that has been met by the Lil' Badgers in recent years, Coach Napolitano utilized the good organization and ability of these teams by frequent substitution in the games. This allowed each member to gain valuable experience. After all, this is the entire purpose of the Lil' Badgers. It wasn't to win in points but to win in experience. This policy was proven to be beneficial to the varsity this year, as there were three men who moved up from the Lil' Badgers of the 1951-52 and who gave lots of aid to the senior team.

Yes, the Lil' Badgers of 1952-53 were a promising crew for future varsity competition from the initial horn for practice until the last game was over. Since the squad was an entire Freshmen aggregation, the potentiality of moving up to the varsity was increased. This was shown when two members of the squad were placed on the big Badgers. These two were Skippy Mosmiller and Gary Mugnier.

FATHER COLKIN

Fr. Colkin has been directing the intramural sports program since he came ta Spring Hill in 1937. The pragram has been under his persanal directian the whole time excepting a space af 5 years in 1941-46 when he left Spring Hill far his thealogical training. The huge success af the pragram has been in a large part consequent upan his awn personal devotion. It is estimated that 90% of the student body is active in the intramural program.

Under his directian the student intra-mural baard functians. From recards campiled persanally by him come the detailed reparts af the multitudinous campus sports events. Besides all this, he is always ready himself ta referee any of the games in which "his bays" play.

INTRAMURALS

Intramural sports play an important part in the extra-curricular life of the student bady at Spring Hill. Facilities far variaus seasanal intramural sparts are available on the campus. With participatian optianal, teams are farmed under the guidance af the intramural directar far competitian in touch-faotball, basketball and saftball. Off-campus intramural athletics include amang others, a bawling league. Traphies are pravided for the winners in the various intramural sparts.

RIFLE TEAM

1952-53 RIFLE TEAM

Spring Hill's Rifle Team is improving each year and this year was our best to date. The firers in order are: First Place—Ross Partridge; Second Place—Rene Broussard, Third Place—Richard Airey; and Fourth Place—James Higgins. Other members of the team are: Eddie Staff, Neal Willemse, Robert Mulcahy, Jerome Mullin, Wilson McCrary, Peter Zalopany, John Arata and Hugh Campbell. The team did not win every match but we won our share. Next year we promise to do better. If they would place a duck in front of the bull's eye, Peter Zalopany's score would probably double. He does all right anyway. The coach of the team was Captain George W. Pulliam and he was assisted by M/Sgt. Patrick Burns.

SUMMER CAMP

The ROTC Summer Camp for the cadets from the Spring Hill College ROTC Unit is located at Fort Eustis, Virginia, and is in session from June 15th to August 1st. All cadets completing the First Year Advanced Course (Juniors) must attend this camp. During the camp session the cadets take part in practical application of theoretical training received during the past school year in such activities as convoy, stevedore, amphibious and rail operations. They also participate in physical training, radiological defense weapons and rifle marksmanship. In addition to technical training great stress is placed upon the development of leadership qualities. During the six weeks an active athletic, recreational and religious program is carried out for the cadets. Fort Eustis is located on the James River in the historic tidewater Virginia which was the site of many historical incidents important during the infancy of this nation. Cadets are able to tour Williamsburg and Yorktown, both of which are exceedingly interesting from a historical standpoint.

One of the targets at which we aim is a knowledge of reality, of God, and of His creation. To know somewhat the workings of His universe, to know our own ends in life — this makes us worthy products.

With the shift of industry to the Mobile area has come an increased demand for personnel competently trained in the field of business and industry. The School of Commerce is Spring Hill's answer to this demand.

EVENING DIVISION

FRANKLYN H. SWEET
Director of the Evening Division

The Evening Division offers a variety of courses in downtown Mobile for the benefit of students who are unable to attend classes during the day. The Division offers, for the most part, courses from the Department of Commerce. However, to ratify the needs of those who wish to qualify for the bachelors degree, other required courses are regularly given. Regular Spring Hill Students also take courses there in order to supplement their ordinary curricula.

GRADUATING FROM Spring Hill College (night division) this year ore Brookley employees, Royal R. Nolley ond Marcus P. Black. Nalley has the distinction of being the first student in the State of Alabomo to receive all his credits far his degree by ottending night school.

This is the new McGill High School in downtown Mobile in which the Evening Division of the College is conducted.

STUDENTS

This poge denotes o division in the ocodemic sectian. The teachers came befare, they give acodemic standing ta the students who naw came after. In the first part af this portian those students ore represented who have excelled in an ocademic way. We ore fartunote to have an this compus voriaus organizatians whose purpose it is to recognize exceptionol schalastic obility.

Next come the students as an ocademic body, ranging from freshmen, who have just begun their ocademic training, ta graduating seniors, who are reody ta apply their knowledge ta the procticol prablems af the madern world.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council consists of representatives from campus organizations and student elected members. It serves a useful variety of campus purposes. Besides its duties as a student governing board it serves as a coordinating center for all the activities of campus organizations. It gives an excellent opportunity for the recognition of qualities of leadership in the student doby.

AMERICAN CHEMICAL SOCIETY

As an outgrowth of the old Chemical Club the American Chemical Society is a two year old new-comer to the Hill campus. The general aim of the Society is to foster interest in the science of Chemistry. It has gained the esteem of regional high schools by serving as an annual host to visiting high school chemistry classes. The society itself makes field trips to various chemical plants in the Mobile area.
